*Throughout the year, Blackstone Private Multi-Asset Credit and Income Fund ("BMACX", "we", "us", "our" or the "Fund") generates qualified interest income ("QII"). In accordance with Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("IRC"), QII earned by BMACX may be exempt from U.S. tax withholding when distributed to qualifying non-U.S. shareholders as an interest-related dividend ("IRD").

The current year's IRD information is estimated based on BMACX's activity to-date. The tax character of distributions for a tax year depend on BMACX's total amount of taxable income for the year, therefore, the tax character cannot be confirmed until after the end of the tax year. Accordingly, BMACX's distributions for the tax year may be recharacterized later based upon subsequent events. As applicable, BMACX reports the final tax character, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, of its distributions annually to U.S. shareholders on Internal Revenue Service Forms 1099-DIV, issued after the end of the year. As applicable, BMACX reports the final tax character, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, of its distributions annually to non-U.S. shareholders on Internal Revenue Service Forms 1042-S, issued after the end of the year. BMACX's Annual Reports also include information regarding the Fund's distributions for each fiscal year. Because each stockholder's tax status is unique, stockholders should consult their tax advisor regarding the appropriate tax treatment of the information above.

BMACX expects to declare distributions daily and pay regular monthly distributions. Accruals will occur daily, provided, however, that accruals on any non-business day will be effective as of the preceding business day. We cannot guarantee that we will make distributions, and if we do we may fund such distributions from sources other than net investment income, including the sale of assets, borrowings, return of capital, or offering proceeds, and although we generally expect to fund distributions from net investment income, we have not established limits on the amounts we may pay from such sources. Please see the prospectus for more information.
